FAQ

Who holds my funds with Mangrove?

You do. Mangrove is non-custodial: your funds stay in your wallet, with no lockup, and you can disconnect anytime.

Can I use Mangrove and TradingView together?

Yes. Many traders chart in one tool and automate in another. Mangrove focuses on generating, testing and running strategies with built-in risk controls.

What changes for TradingView script sellers on Nov 1, 2026?

TradingView says selling access to invite-only scripts outside its Marketplace will no longer be permitted from that date.

Does Mangrove charge trading fees?

Trading fees apply only to profitable trades, in addition to plan pricing. Students who sign up with a .edu email get 3 months of Intermediate free, then 30% off Intermediate or Advanced for life.
